RE: (1) MARTIN BORMANN

On April 6, 1965, ROBERT N. MORRISSEY, Attorney, 2268 Main Street, Stratford, Connecticut, advised he had a mature client who wanted to furnish information on an individual whom he believed resembled MARTIN BORMANN.

On April 6, 1965, WILLIAM J. REILLY, 20 Kasper Circle, Stratford, Connecticut, furnished the following information:

In connection with his business as a salesman he said he called at the firm of Buehner and Wanner, Fort Point Street, East Norwalk, Connecticut, on several occasions. After having read an article on MARTIN BORMANN which appeared in the March, 1965 issue of the monthly magazine "Readers Digest" he feels that one of the partners, a Mr. BUEHNER, whose first name he did not know, resembled MARTIN BORMANN. BUEHNER has a heavy German accent and appears to avoid meeting the public. The partnership makes metal gift ware. In REILLY's opinion, WANNER, whose first name he does not know, appeared to him to act like a typical Nazi storm trooper.

He described BUEHNER as follows: Height, 5' 8", or 5' 9"; weight 225 pounds; build, heavy set; peculiarities, full face, round shouldered; shape of nose resembles MARTIN BORMANN's; sex, male; race, white.

Mr. REILLY was told that the Federal Bureau of Investigation has no connection with or responsibility for the $25,000.00 reward offered by West German authorities for information leading to BORMANN's apprehension and he was advised to furnish his information to the West German Embassy in Washington, D.C.
